Subject: Welcome to Hoover's Economic Fellowship Program

Important dates for the Economic Fellowship Program

Dear Taylor Hewes:

We are excited to welcome you to the Hoover Institution's inaugural Economic Fellowship Program. Over the next 4-months you will attend an intense series of lectures on Capitol Hill led by Hoover scholars. You are required to attend all 7 sessions. If, for some reason, you are unable to attend a lecture please notify Paige Mathes (spmathes@stanford.edu; 202.760.3202) as soon as possible so an alternative for you to attend can be found.

DC-based lectures will take place on Capitol Hill (room location TBD) from 5:30pm-7:30pm and an invitation inviting you to each lecture will subsequently follow. Refreshments will be provided at each session. The current list of dates, topics and speakers are as follows:

May 2, 2019 -Capitalism, Socialism, and Democracy with Senior Fellow Michael Boskin

May 16, 2019 –International Trade and Economic Change with Research Fellow Russ Roberts

May 30, 2019–Education, Freedom & Prosperity with Senior Fellow Checker Finn

June 13, 2019–Property Rights and Innovation with Senior Fellow Steve Haber

June 27, 2019 (tentative)–The Significance of Government Spending and Debt Proposed with speaker TBD

July 11, 2019 –How Our Constitutional Architecture Fosters Prosperity with Research Fellow Adam White

July 23, 2019 (note this is a Tuesday)-American Prosperity: First Principles with Senior Fellow John Taylor & Senior Fellow John Cochrane (tentative)

The program concludes August 21-23, 2019 with a demanding seminar on Stanford University's campus over three days. You will be provided roundtrip airfare, ground transportation to and from campus, housing and meals that are part of the seminar. The Hoover Institution diligently complies with congressional ethics rules and will provide you with all necessary information within required deadlines leading up to the trip.

In the meantime, if you have any questions or concerns please do not hesitate to reach out to us. We look forward to getting to know each of you over the coming months.

Sincerely,

Paige Mathes, Senior Manger of Programs
